Because this is an international tournament with young competitors from different countries speaking different languages, we reserve the right to re-fight a match if necessary because of any misunderstandings or mistakes on the part of a player or coach making what we determine to be an honest error. We see no harm in re-fighting a match under these circumstances. We realize problems in transportation can arise due to no error on the part of the competitors. If a problem arises, please call and speak to one of the following people. The phone numbers provided are cell phone numbers which should get you in contact with the tournament staff in case of such as emergency.
